 A COMPOUND CASE.

Henry Watt was prowling about the works of the Hale & Norcross yesterday morning at a very early hour. He would not stop when called, and the night-watchman shot him. Watt's wounds are mortal. The watchman, Henry Hathrell, shot him, believing him a thief. Hathrell has been arrested on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

Last winter in Oakland a watchman saw a man looking into a window of a bank about midnight. The watchman tried to arrest him but the man took the watchman for a robber and ran away. The watchman fired, wounding the fugitive in the heel. He proved to be a respectable citizen who was merely looking into the bank to ascertain the time by the large clock which hung there in the light.

Police men are not justified in firing at a man upon mere suspicion. A court not long since gave a decision to that effect. There is too much clubbing and pistoling done by police men. The abuse of power by the police of New York is notorious. It is there a common thing for a ruffian in uniform to club a good citizen who may offend him.

The practice of firing at a supposed criminal is an abuse, and should be stopped. Very likely the man that Hathrell shot was a thief. But had Mackay or Fair been prowling about and got shot, what a fuss would be made about it!

SUICIDE OF DETECTIVE GAY.

The suicide of Detective D. C. Gay in San Francisco on Thursday was a singular case. About a year ago he had promised his wife to quit drinking. This pledge he broke last Sunday night, at which time he got drunk. For this he killed himself.

The suicide of Detective Gay was a child's play. No man can always live up to his good resolutions. If he falls, he should try again, and keep on trying. Nothing great can be accomplished in this world without previous failures.

Detective Gay leaves a wife to whom he wrote a loving letter before his death. It was not a manly or a loving act in him to shuffle out of the world and leave her to bear its hard knocks alone.

There are some cases of suicide which awaken compassion, but this does not.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The spontaneous combustion of a human being is reported by the San Jose Herald. The consumed was Miss Carrie C. Hoyle, aged 19, who lived near San Lorenzo, in Santa Cruz county. She had for years been a hard drinker of whisky. On September 10th she left her home with a jug of whisky in her hand. Some hours afterward her ashes and some charred remains of her clothing were found on a rock by the side of the empty jug. The remains were unburned, and the cause of death kept secret for several weeks, but the girl's father one day, when in his cups, revealed the truth.

The examination of the Roddams ended at Wheatland yesterday. The innocence of the Roddams was established and they were discharged from custody. And so the Wheatland outrage remains a mystery.

Ohang, the noted colored horse trainer, says: "They are hippodroming Grant around the country the same as they did Rarus."

FEARFUL ACCIDENT AT BODIE.

Nine Men Dropped 500 Feet in the Fall of a Tree.

Bodie, October 3. — As the 6 o'clock shift was being lowered in the Tioga mine, with nine men on board, the engine escaped from the control of the engineer and the cage dropped to the bottom level. One man is now dead and all are injured in such a manner as to warrant the belief that they will not recover. The names of the men injured in the Tioga mine are: Thomas Moran, slightly hurt; Benjamin, dying; leg broken; John Cassidy, both legs broken; Daniel Adams, injured internally; Harry Richards, killed; Joe, severely injured; seriously; Pete Pink, one leg broken. It is the opinion of the physicians in charge that all the injured will die. The miners' union hall is a place of mourning, and bears a resemblance to the time of the Standard explosion.

The mill of the Placerville Gold Quartz mine, situated within the limits of Placerville, is crushing twenty tons of quartz each day, and has developed a new ore body.

In Arizona last Monday a body of masked men jumped the military herd of horses at Camp Grant, tied the herder to a tree, and started with a hundred horses, but being closely pursued, left all but thirteen of the best ones.

It is estimated that the total cost of the proposed wagon road from Nevada City to Forest City, in Sierra county, will be $9,176 50. The distance by the present road is 35 miles; by the new road it would be 28 miles. This is from an official survey.

A Plot to Burn Elko

From the Independent, Oct. 2.

Through a secret channel, it reached the ears of the officers yesterday, that a plot was hatching to fire the town. A close watch was kept of the suspected party, and some suspicious maneuvering was discovered, but the matter of the suspicion having leaked out, arrests were made before the project had come to a head and the sworn statement of a party who claims to have been offered a reward for the commission of the crime, is about all that can be relied on for the conviction; at least, if further evidence has been secured, it has not been developed.

Fast Racing at St. Louis.

In a pacing race at St. Louis on the 2d, between Rowdy Boy, Mattie Hunter and Sleepy Tom, Mattie Hunter made the first half mile in 1:04, and won the heat in a jog in 2:14. Rowdy Boy won the three next heats in 2:17—1:19—2:14.

Messrs. James S. Taylor & Co., 116 Front

any other injurious or deleterious ingredients.

Messrs. James S. Taylor & Co., 116

Powder than with three teaspoonfuls of any other I have ever used. If there is a yeast powder anywhere in the world equal to it, I have never seen or heard of it. As a baker I pronounce this powder simply perfection.
